

) devoted his life to the rights and wellbeing of children, regardless of nationality or religion. This exhibition tells the inspirational story of his life and work with the children of Warsaw, his death - together with the orphans in his care - at the hands of the Nazis, and his continuing legacy worldwide. It raises challenging issues relating to children's rights today. £25 freestanding banners 80 cm x 180 cm

£200 The Last Goodbye - The Rescue of Children from Nazi Europe The story of the 10,000 unaccompanied child refugees admitted to Britain on the Kindertransport, highlighting issues relating to prejudice, racism and indifference. An education resource with the same title is also available. £16 freestanding banners 80 cm x 180 cm

£200 Am I My Brother's Keeper? Rescue in the Holocaust This raises challenging ethical and moral issues, focusing on the stories of particular individuals, both rescuers and those who were rescued, who lived or settled in Britain. £21 panels. Hanging system: Velcro 60 cm x 84 cm

£100 The Boys - Triumph over Adversity The story of a group of teenage Holocaust survivors admitted to Britain after the Second World War, produced in association with the