

was closely aligned with and supported by the US. Was in power until 1944. Came to power by overthrowing the government of Gerardo Machado. Regime was corrupt and repressive and systemically profited from the exploitation of Cuba's commercial interests with US corporations and mafia. Brazilian Dictator. Creator of Estado Novo made a comeback in 1950. Left-leaning populist. Mingled between worker's candidate and using pro-labor opportunistically. Estado Novo prosecuted the Communist Party but it was paternalistic in many ways. Nationalist policies made him truly popular among the Brazilian people. The process by which regional economies, societies, and cultures have become integrated through a global network of political ideas through communication, transportation, and trade. Good Neighbor Policy. 1933–Was the foreign policy of the administration of the US President FDR toward Latin American countries as a result of severed Great Britain diplomatic relations. FDR's representatives swore off military intervention. Cuba and Panama were no longer to be protectorates. Result was a change in the mood of US-Latin American relations. Former president of Argentina, and third wife to former president Juan Peron. When he was in office